

Future Employer:

I respect that you are very busy and appreciate conciseness. So until future follow up I will remain brief.

My resume will attest to my:

- Extensive sales negotiation experience from rank and file personnel to “C” suite personnel.
- Ability to adapt to new products/services.
- Willingness to travel locally and out state.

I have an outgoing and persuasively attractive personality. I have a strong need to stay “fresh” by seeking challenges in areas that are new to me.

Please consider my application.

Thank you.
