Dear Hiring Manager:

I am writing to you for consideration of a Technical Sales/Service position. I am an incredibly focused, adept, and determined worker with over twenty years of experience working in the foodservice/bakery industry.

I can offer myself as a valuable asset to your organization as I am highly motivated and learn quickly.

As is documented in my resume, during my time with former employers, I worked primarily on customer concerns and improving product quality through ingredient technologies and process controls. I have also spent my recent career traveling to various customer accounts around the country building and maintaining relationships and implementing our ingredient portfolio to help grow our business presence.

I am positive that you will find that I am well qualified for a career with your team in the Technical Sales and Service role. Thank you for your time and I look forward to the opportunity to meet soon.

Best Regards,

Stephen Barnhart
